1.0 Association- Governance

1.1 General

1.1.1

OAPA business is to be conducted by OAPA members.

1.1.2

The Board of Directors (BOD) has sole authority for policies regarding the management of the Association, including, but not limited to, management of the Association's property, business, financial affairs, and judicial affairs. It is responsible for setting the strategic direction of the Association.

1.1.3

The members of the BOD, student representative-elect and committee chairs shall perform the duties of their position(s) as outlined in the OAPA job description, which may be amended from time to time with approval of the BOD. (Appendix A)

1.2 Committees, Subcommittees, Ad Hoc Groups

1.2.1 Committees

A committee is a group that carries out the volunteer work of OAPA. Each committee is given unique annual charges rooted in OAPA's policy and business priorities and initiatives.

The committee will carry out the defined objectives according to the committee charges and as provided by the president or BOD according to a clearly defined timeframe for completion of said objectives.

The committee must receive approval from the BOD before entering into any legal or financial agreement on behalf of OAPA. The committee chair shall oversee all expenses of the committee and collaborate with the ED and secretary-treasurer to submit a proposed budget on an annual basis.

Committee chairs are appointed by the president with approval of the BOD, and must be OAPA members at the time of their appointment and throughout their designated term.

Committee chairs shall hold at least two committee meetings per year. They shall attend a number of BOD meetings determined by the president, and shall submit a report of committee activities at least two weeks in advance of each Board meeting.

Committee chairs shall collaborate with other committees and staff, as needed, to ensure cross association strategy, research, and planning.

Committee chairs shall routinely monitor and update their respective committee's information on the OAPA website in collaboration with the ED and website host.

Committee chairs shall make policy recommendations to the BOD on an as needed basis.

Committee members shall be solicited from the membership by electronic means and must be OAPA members unless additional outside expertise is required in which case OAPA membership is not required.

1.2.2 Subcommittee

A subcommittee is a leadership body existing beneath a committee that may be specified by the BOD and has a technical role related to achieving the charges of that committee.

In addition to overseeing the responsibilities of the committee, committee chairs oversee the activities of the subcommittees that exist beneath the umbrellas of their respective committees.

Committee chairs may select a co-chair to carry out the charges of the subcommittee with approval by the president and majority of the BOD. Members of subcommittees shall be solicited from the membership by electronic means and must be OAPA members.

1.2.3 Ad Hoc Group

An ad hoc group is a temporary group created on an as needed basis and addresses a specific issue that is too time or labor intensive to be addressed as part of normal committee work. An ad hoc group shall be appointed by the president with concurrence by the BOD. Its life span is based on the charges of the group.

An ad hoc group has a chair that is appointed by and reports to the president and an even number of members, allowing for an overall odd number of members to facilitate majority voting.

1.3 Committees - Charges

1.3.1 Education Committee

The committee will:

- The Education Committee shall plan, conduct and evaluate OAPA's overall professional educational program and strategy with the assistance of the Executive Director (ED) each year. This includes consulting on the CME accreditation process and associated criteria, identifying specialty areas for content development based on emerging opportunities for the profession, and providing recommendations regarding format and scope of specialty programming.
- Act as a champion for OAPA's overall education program, including annual conference, pharmacology conference, specialty meetings, and CME accreditation.

- Conferences and non-conference educational activities shall be held at a location determined by the ED with support of the Executive Committee.
- CME shall be provided for all educational activities in accordance with the AAPA Guidelines.
- The Education Committee shall work with staff to provide input on strategies to improve the experience and ensure the relevance of OAPA conferences and speciality meetings. This shall include surveying conference and meeting attendees to inform future educational activities.

1.3.2

Bylaws Committee

The committee will:

- The vice president is the parliamentary advisor of the OAPA Bylaws and Policy Manual and chair of the Bylaws Committee unless otherwise designated by the BOD.
- The vice president and/or ED shall have the authority to correct typographical, format, and/or grammatical errors if they do not alter the intent of the policy.
- Meet, at a minimum, annually to ensure OAPA Bylaws and Policy Manual are updated based on current PA practice standards and needs of the Association and are congruent with AAPA Bylaws and Policy Manual.
- Policies adopted by the BOD shall be reviewed two years after adoption and will be automatically reaffirmed unless revised or referred by the BOD during the year of expiration.
- Inform the membership of proposed Bylaws amendments in accordance with Article XVI of the OAPA Bylaws.
- Develop appropriate language for amendments to the Bylaw or Policy Manual.
- Review and ensure that OAPA adheres to the AAPA Guidelines for Ethical Conduct for the PA Profession.
- Assist the chief delegate to the AAPA House of Delegates (HOD) with preparation of resolutions as needed.

1.3.3

Diversity Committee

The committee will:

- Advance OAPA’s commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion by supporting and contributing to the overall DEI strategy, goals, programs and initiatives.
- Partner with the BOD to create pipelines of diverse members and leaders to join OAPA.
- Collaborate with other committees, organizations and staff, as needed, to ensure Association implementation around equity and inclusion program initiatives.
- Develop strategies to educate the public about health disparities and identify educational and professional development opportunities on DEI matters for OAPA members.
- Develop sustainable strategies for historically marginalized students leading to diversifying the PA profession.

1.3.4 Elections Committee
The committee will:

- The Election Committee is composed of 3 non-candidate Board members appointed by the president and the vice president serves as the chair for an even number of members to allow for majority voting.
- Develop the election process for OAPA BOD officers, AAPA delegates and the student representative-elect in collaboration with the BOD.
- Maintain the OAPA election manual (Appendix B) including definition of elected positions, terms of service, process for declaring candidacy, rules for the election process, voting, reporting results for all elected positions and propose updates as needed.
- Notify the membership of the election process for all positions according to the OAPA election manual.
- Oversee the election process according to the election manual with support from the secretary-treasurer and ED.

1.3.5 Government Affairs Committee
The committee will:

- The GAC is actively involved at the state and national level to ensure that PA practice standards in the state of Ohio are consistent with AAPA initiatives.
- Ensure that current statutes and rules regarding PA practice in Ohio are fairly interpreted and applied.

2.0 Association- Operations

2.1 General

2.1.1 Reimbursement

Board members, delegates and committee chairs are eligible for reimbursement for conducting OAPA business based on the amount specified in the annual budget. Reimbursement is based on the most current Federal guidelines. Requests for reimbursement must be made by completing a reimbursement form, available from the OAPA office prior to conducting business to include the reason for the expense and expected costs to conduct OAPA business. Reimbursement shall be approved by the ED for reimbursement based on available funds. If approved, receipts must be submitted within 30 days of the expense.

2.1.2 Correspondence

All Association business documents and/or emails and all communication to OAPA members will originate from the OAPA office. OAPA letterhead shall be provided to the president or other Board members with approval by the BOD.

2.1.3 Logo

The OAPA logo may not be altered in any way without permission of the BOD. It may be used on OAPA organizational stationery and pamphlets and programs for CME conferences. Any other contemplated use must have prior BOD approval.

2.1.4 Solicitation

No one shall solicit money for the OAPA without prior approval of the BOD.

2.1.5 Official Liaison

The OAPA may, at the discretion of the BOD, establish an official liaison with other professional organizations as it deems appropriate.

2.1.6 Representation

OAPA prohibits any person from speaking for the Association without the sanction of the BOD or its agents. Any individual, outside of elected officers, delegates or committee chairs, who chooses to speak on the behalf of OAPA must seek approval from the BOD.

2.2 Board of Director Meetings

2.2.1 Regular Meetings

Regular Board meetings are those called by the president for conducting normal OAPA business. A schedule of regular meetings shall be determined by July 1 and posted on the OAPA website. The ED shall notify Board members, delegates, committee chairs, and the general membership of Board meetings via electronic means at least two weeks prior to the meeting.

2.2.2 Special Meetings

Special meetings are those called by the secretary/treasurer with support from the ED on behalf of the president for a single purpose. The president and/or ED may invite experts to attend the meeting as appropriate. The ED shall send notice of the special meeting to the BOD by electronic means and shall include the time, place, business to be considered and whether the meeting is anticipated to be open, closed or executive session meeting.

2.2.3 Closed Meetings

Any meeting of the BOD may, by a majority vote, be moved to a closed meeting. Only OAPA members and staff, and others specifically approved by the BOD may attend a closed meeting.

2.2.4 Executive Session

Any meeting of the BOD may, by a majority vote, be moved to an executive session. Only BOD members and others specifically approved by the BOD may attend executive session meetings. Meeting minutes should document when the BOD goes into executive session and when it exits executive session. Separate official meeting minutes of executive session meetings will reflect motions adopted during those sessions to ensure a clear record of actions taken by the BOD. Executive session meeting minutes shall be kept confidential. The secretary-treasurer/ED shall distribute executive session minutes only to members of the BOD for approval during a subsequent executive session. After approval of minutes, the minutes may be transmitted to the secretary/treasurer or ED to store in a confidential file and shall not be posted online. The BOD may, at their discretion, include a narrative summary of executive session action item(s) containing no sensitive or confidential information in the open session minutes of the same meeting, which will be posted online.

2.2.5 Action By Unanimous Written Consent

In accordance with Article VI, Section 8 of the Bylaws, the BOD may act by unanimous written consent without a meeting. An officer's written consent may be in electronic form and delivered by electronic means. The procedure is as follows:

- The president or ED shall distribute a proposed action to the BOD via email. The communication shall contain an action item with a written motion; supplemental materials, if applicable; procedures and timeline for response.
- It is recommended that the BOD have 72 hours from the time the request is distributed to respond, but urgency of the issue may demand a shorter interval.
- Board members will respond to the email noting their consent (or request to refer to a meeting for discussion) and their name.
- Upon receipt of consents from all officers, the written motion will have been adopted.

- A Board member may request discussion on the proposed action, which will result in a referral to an upcoming BOD meeting.
- If any Board member fails to respond, the action will not pass, and the issue will be automatically referred to an upcoming BOD meeting.

2.2.6 Meeting Materials

The ED develops the Board meeting agenda with input from the president. The BOD shall receive meeting materials for regular meetings at least seven days prior to each Board meeting. Updated information may be provided closer to or at the meeting. Materials for special meetings will be distributed at least two days in advance.

2.2.7 Attendance

Board members will advise the ED by electronic means as to their attendance for all Board meetings. An officer with absence from one or more official Board meetings may be subject to Board review and possible dismissal.

2.2.8 Meeting Minutes

The secretary-treasurer and/or ED shall maintain minutes and written records of all Board meetings and Board actions taken without a meeting (UWC). Minutes shall not capture the proposer of any motion. Meeting minutes shall be sent to all Board members and additional persons approved by the Board for review prior to the next board meeting. Board meeting minutes will be approved by majority vote of the BOD at the subsequent Board meeting and will then be published on the OAPA website.

2.2.9 Dress Code

Appropriate dress for meetings of the BOD is business casual.

2.3 Membership

2.3.1 Financial or Personal Hardship

OAPA members may be eligible for a reduced cost or complimentary membership due to financial or personal hardship on a case-by-case basis. Requests for approval must be made in writing to the OAPA office and include a statement of hardship. Such requests shall be approved by the Executive Committee provided the annual budget allows for it. A member may request an extension in writing to the OAPA office at the time of renewal provided the hardship remains and is subject to approval by the same process.

2.4 Strategic Plan

The BOD is responsible for initiating a strategic planning process, developing the strategic plan, reviewing and approving the final version and monitoring the plan progress on a regular basis. The OAPA strategic plan shall be in alignment with the mission and vision and guide the work of the Association.

2.5 Diversity, Equity, Inclusion

OAPA shall demonstrate commitment to respecting the values and diversity of all individuals inclusive of, but not limited to, race, ethnicity, culture, national origin, faith, neurodiversity, veteran status, socioeconomic status, sex, gender identity or expression and sexual orientation. DEI initiatives shall be considered in development of the strategic plan including, but not limited to, developing programs and partnerships to attract more underrepresented minorities to the profession. OAPA shall voice and support policy and legislative solutions to address DEI, health and social issues, justice, tolerance, and address changes to eliminate health disparities.
