

Diagnostic support
you can count on.
Because every woman
counts on you.

Practicing Evidence-Based Medicine in Managing STIs

In this presentation we will address the public health concern of sexually transmitted infections (STIs) and how Universal Screening can improve patient care through established screening guidelines. Additionally, we will discuss symptomatic STI testing, management for Trichomoniasis, as well as testing and treatment for Mycoplasma genitalium.

REGISTER
HERE

Date, Time and Location

Tuesday, November 11, 2025
6:30pm EST
RED The Steakhouse

Nealya Bell-Silva, NP, MSN, WHNP-BC

Nealya Bell-Silva is a Women's Health Nurse Practitioner in the OB/GYN department at Affinia Healthcare.

- Received her Nursing Degree from Saint Louis University in 2003
- Received her Master of Science in Nursing in 2007 from the University of Missouri–St. Louis
- Member of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists and Nurse Practitioners in Women's Health

Registration

RSVP Link:

<https://cvent.me/NOvG9n>

Use the link above to register and RSVP for the event.

Event Address

RED The Steakhouse
200 Park Ave. Suite 130
Orange, OH 44122

Additional Notes

For any additional questions, please contact Sarah DuRant at (912) 659-3320.